The Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986 allows insurers licensed in one state to write liability insurance on commercial risks without being licensed in each state in which they do business. This memorandum sets forth the requirements for a risk retention group or purchasing group under the Act to operate in Tennessee.

I. RISK RETENTION GROUPS

A. DOMESTIC COMPANY REQUIREMENTS:

- 1. Companies must qualify as a property and casualty insurer or captive insurer under the Tennessee Code Annotated and meet requirements to write under the Risk Retention Act.
- 2. Companies already licensed as property and casualty insurers must meet requirements to write under the Risk Retention Act.
- 3. In order to write under the Risk Retention Act, companies must:
 - a. Submit a plan of operation or feasibility study which includes the coverages, deductibles, coverage limits, rates, and rating classification systems for each line of insurance the group intends to offer, and revisions of such plan or study if the group intends to offer any additional lines of liability insurance.
 - b. Must comply with all laws, rules, regulations and requirements applicable to insurers chartered and licensed in Tennessee.
 - c. Must comply with the requirements for foreign companies writing in Tennessee under the Risk Retention Act as set forth below.

B. FOREIGN COMPANY REQUIREMENTS: (Each company writing in Tennessee under the Risk Retention Act shall:)

- 1. Before it may offer insurance in Tennessee, submit a copy of its plan of operation, and any revisions, and the name of the state in which it is chartered and its principal place of business.
- 2. Submit a copy of its annual financial statement to the state in which it is chartered, which statement shall be certified by an independent public accountant and contain a statement of opinion on loss and loss adjustment expense reserves made by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, or a qualified loss reserve specialist.
- 3. Comply with the unfair claim settlement practices law of Tennessee.
- 4. Comply with any Tennessee law regarding false or fraudulent acts or practices, except that if the state seeks an injunction regarding such conduct, such injunction must be obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 5. Pay, on a non-discriminatory basis applicable premium and other taxes, which are levied on admitted insurers and surplus lines insurers, brokers, or policyholders under the laws of Tennessee. The gross premium tax is two and one half percent (2 ½%), payable on a surplus lines basis through a licensed resident or non-resident Tennessee agent.
- 6. Participate, on a non-discriminatory basis, in any mechanism established or authorized under the law of the state for the equitable apportion among insurers of product liability or completed operations liability insurance losses and expenses incurred on policies written through such mechanism. However, no risk retention group may participate in any insurance insolvency guaranty association.

- 7. Register with and designate the Commissioner of Insurance as its agent solely for the purpose of receiving service of legal documents or process.
- 8. Submit to an examination by the Tennessee Commissioner of Insurance to determine the groups financial condition, if:
 - a. The Commissioner has reason to believe the risk retention group is in a financially impaired condition; and,
 - b. The Commissioner of the jurisdiction in which the group is chartered has not begun or has refused to initiate an examination of the group.
- 9. Comply with a lawful order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction upon a petition by the Tennessee Insurance Commissioner alleging that the group is in hazardous financial condition or is financially impaired.
- 10. Provide the following notice in 10-point type, in any insurance policy issued by such group.

Notice: This policy is issued by your risk retention group. Your risk retention group may not be subject to all of the insurance laws and regulations of your state. State insurance solvency guaranty funds are not available for your risk retention group.
